A.I.R. Gallery is pleased to announce Generations III, an invitational exhibition of over 400 small works by women artists in celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the gallery. This event unites a spectrum of women artists nationwide, working in a variety of styles and media. Participating artists were invited by the A.I.R. Gallery artists.

The Generations exhibition series began in 1997 to commemorate the 25th anniversary of A.I.R. Gallery and continues as a biennial event. Founded in 1972, A.I.R. is the first artist-run, not-for-profit gallery for women artists in the country. The announcement for the gallery's first exhibition in September of 1972 elaborates our founding principles: "A.I.R. changes attitudes about art by women. A.I.R. offers women artists a space to show work as innovative, transitory or unsaleable as the artists' conceptions demands." Continuing in that tradition, Generations III will include well-known artists as well as lesser-known, younger, mid-career and emerging artists.

A.I.R. is also pleased to announce that during GENERATIONS III we will be:

- conducting a silent auction for the duration of the exhibition in which 70% of sales will go to the participating artists and 30% to A.I.R.'s 30th Anniversary. Participate in the auction and help us support women artists.
- organizing a raffle in which four winners of the raffle will each receive one piece by one of the following artists: Alice Neel, Faith Ringgold, Ursula Von Rydingsvard, or Nancy Spero. Raffle tickets will be sold to the public at $50 per ticket.
- sponsoring an multi-genre, evening event series organized by W.E.R.I.S.E. (Women Empowered through Revolutionary Ideas Supporting Enterprise). W.E.R.I.S.E is a multicultural collective made up of visual artists, performing artists, writers, filmmakers, and entrepreneurs. See www.werise.org.

A.I.R. Gallery is located at 40 Wooster St. between Broome and Grand Streets and is open Tuesday through Saturday from 11:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M.
