TENESH WEBBER

May 30 - June 17, 1995

Opening Reception: Saturday, June 3, 6-8 PM

A.I.R. Gallery is pleased to present the work of photographer Tenesh Webber, running from May 30- June 17, 1995.

This exhibit marks the culmination of a Weinroth Fellowship, which the artist was awarded, through A.I.R. Gallery, in 1993.

Tenesh Webber works in large scale black and white photography. Through the juxtaposition of photographs of symbolically charged objects, and photograms of geometric shapes, she explores the presence of the object, and issues of memory. "... Webber sets up a visual condition which expresses the polarities of her metier - the real and illusionary, achieving complexity through reductive means. She forges a relationship between object and anti-object..." Betti-Sue Hertz.

In 1995 Tenesh Webber exhibited at ARCO, in Madrid, Spain, through Galeria Spectrum, Zaragoza. Her upcoming exhibits include: "Tarazona Foto", Tarazona, Spain and "Bronx Choice: Artists and Community", at The Bronx Museum of The Arts.
