Generations II: A Survey of Women Artists at the Millennium

February 15 - March 11, 2000

Opening Reception: Thursday, February 17, 6-8pm

A.I.R. Gallery is pleased to announce Generations II: A Survey of Women Artists at the Millennium, a grand salon-style invitational exhibition of small works by women artists, in celebration of the year 2000. The Generations exhibition series began in 1997 to commemorate the 25th anniversary of A.I.R. Gallery and will continue as a bi-annual event. A.I.R. is the first not-for-profit artist-run gallery for women artists in the country. The gallery was created as an alternative venue, free of commercial pressures, and became a model for many artist-run spaces for women to follow.

This event unites a broad spectrum of women artists who work in a variety of styles. The gallery walls will be covered from floor to ceiling by a tapestry of small works including paintings, drawings, sculptures, digital art, and mixed media, giving viewers an exciting overview of work by women artists today. Generations, the first show in this series, featured the work of over 400 women artists including such artists as Joyce Kozloff, Nancy Spero and Carolee Schneemann. Continuing in that tradition, Generations II will include well-known artists as well as lesser-known, younger and emerging artists. All participating artists were invited by the A.I.R. Gallery artists.

A.I.R. is also pleased to announce that we will be conducting a silent auction for the duration of the exhibition in which the 20% gallery commission on all sales will be donated to the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund to help support their new Women, Policy and Media Program. Participate in the auction and help us support NOW.

A.I.R. Gallery is open Tuesday through Saturday from 11:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M.
